

MAY
£2.80

SPECIAL ISSUE:
DESIGNER LABELS
FOR LESS

SUMMER'S SIX
ESSENTIAL BUYS

WHO SHOPS WITH WHO

THE CANDIDATE
One woman's election diary

GREAT DEALS

THE CATCH IS BACK

How to marry
a millionaire

RALPH LAUREN GIORGIO ARMANI CALVIN KLEIN
DONATELLA VERSACE DONNA KARAN RIFAT OZBEK

in vogue

EDITED BY ANNA HARVEY

Now is the time to reclaim your garden from winter and start weeding, pottering or just sitting in it again...

Silver-plated planter, right, £32, from a selection at Annabel Jones. Below left, wooden conservatory chair, £1,800, from Sutherland Europe

Floriferous photograph frame, £51, at Nina Campbell

Survey the fruits of your labours from a sinuous metal-framed deck chair, £350, from The Haveringham Collection

Confine gastropods to the house: silver-plated sea shell, £65, from a selection at Annabel Jones

Garden of delights

This year cut the supermarket fresh-herbs department entirely out of your life by taking a leaf from the first book in a new gardening series from innovative garden designer George Carter. Gardening with Herbs, right, and achieve a garden with both aesthetics and taste. His Gardening with Containers is full of tips to make any space a stylish, flower-filled bower – especially useful if your garden is more window box than Kew (both books, Ryland Peters & Small, £16.99).

Pretty practical tool basket, £45 (excluding tools), from English Garden

Tulips packed in a drift of tissue paper, £25 for around 20 flowers, from Forever Flowering

Hot hats

Essential headgear to ward off the sun's rays

Bianca straw, £55, at The Hat Shop

Raffia Newport, by Helen Kaminski, £102, at Fenwick

Cotton pique hat, by Helen Kaminski, £52, at Fenwick

Natural straw, £34.45, at The Hat Shop

Cream straw, £45, at Herald & Heart Hatters

Raffia Newport with rolled brim, by Helen Kaminski, £99, at Fenwick

Stowaway folding hat, £26.50, at Herald & Heart Hatters